

ELECTION FAILS, TO AFFECT INTEREST IN SERVANTS CONTEST

Today's Mail Brings in Twenty-four New Entries for Domestic.

CHAIRMAN IS DELIGHTED

Mrs. J. Edson Briggs Pleased At Tone of Letters Received From Housewives.

Interest in the domestics contest of the District Federation of Women's Clubs continues unabated, notwithstanding the election. Today's mail brought twenty-four new entries to the length of service contest of the Federation of Women's Clubs of the District of Columbia.

As has been the case since the contest began, there is an unusually large number of entries of domestics with over twenty-five years of service. One of today's entries was of a domestic who had served in one family for sixty-eight years—since her birth, in fact.

The commendation of faithful service that the letters entering domestics contain are as flattering as ever. Mrs. J. Edson Briggs, chairman of the home economics committee of the Federation, who has the contest in charge, is much pleased at the evidence of faithful domestic service reflected by the tone of the letters she receives.

All entries should be made to Mrs. J. Edson Briggs, 630 South Carolina avenue southeast.

Two Rode a Fish.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 8.—C. A. Whitney and his sixteen-year-old son rode around on the back of a forty-two-pound catfish for half an hour in the Chickasaw river near Drury the other day. They finally landed the fish and brought it to Wichita.

Mr. Whitney and his son have been camping for the last month. Neighbors told them of several times seeing a monster fish in the river. Mr. Whitney, wading into the river, felt around until he located the fish.

He got one hand in the catfish's gills and jumped on its back. The fish darted forward and whipped around in the water until it was about to throw its rider off. Mr. Whitney's son rushed to his father's aid and climbed on top of the latter's back to weigh down the catfish. For half an hour the two men rode the fish around, struggling to get it to the bank. They finally succeeded.

LINER ARABIA SUNK 47 KILLED AS CAR WITHOUT WARNING PLUNGES INTO RIVER

British Admiralty Announces Two Lives Were Lost When Vessel Went Down.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Peninsular and Oriental liner Arabia, sunk by a submarine, was torpedoed without warning, the British admiralty announced today. Two lives were lost when the vessel went down.

The Arabia carried 47 passengers, the admiralty statement said. They included 36 women and children. The passengers were picked up by various vessels which hurried to the scene, and so far as now is known only two persons perished.

The Arabia was sunk Monday noon in the Mediterranean. One of her ports of call was Gibraltar. She carried a number of Australian passengers from Sidney. Details of the attack and sinking of the ship have not yet been received.

The Arabia was last reported en route to London from Sydney, N. S. W. She sailed from Adelaide October 5. The Arabia was a twin-screw steamer of 7,333 tons, gross, was 499 feet long, and 54 foot beam.

RETURNS MAY DELAY PAYMENT OF WAGERS

While Wilson wagers retired last night conceding defeat, none of the bets placed in Washington, so far as can be learned, particularly those of consequence, have yet been paid. Holders, in the majority of instances, were instructed to make payments November 8. There is now prospect of a situation that may postpone these payments until the official canvass of votes shall have been made by the respective States.

Few late bets were placed in Washington yesterday, both Democrats and Republicans being frightened into restraint by the sharp shift in betting odds in Wilson's favor in New York. There was talk of even money, but no large sums were wagered.

Boston Trolley Falls Through Open Drawbridge With 65 Passengers Aboard.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Police estimates today were that the lives of forty-seven persons were lost last night when a crowded passenger car of the Boston elevated street railway plunged through an open drawbridge into Fort Point channel, just outside the South station terminal.

Twelve other persons were rescued from the water by wireboats and tugs. One man, Thomas J. Gannon, died after being brought to shore. Two bodies were found with grappling irons but the recovery of other bodies was delayed, as it was believed, they were pinned in the car, which rested on the bottom of the channel, thirty-five feet deep.

Late forty-four bodies had been removed from the car, and divers reported that there were others that had not been brought to the surface.

Motorman Jumped.
Gerald Walsh, motorman of the car, who jumped before it went over the edge of the draw, asserted that the accident was due to the fact that there was no light on the gates protecting the opening.

He said George McKeon, the conductor, who also jumped and saved his life, were arrested on technical charges of manslaughter.

The conductor was insolent, and the police were unable to learn exactly the number of his passengers.

J. Harvey White, publicity agent of the Boston elevated road, in a statement issued soon after the accident, said his information agreed with that of the police that about forty persons were unaccounted for.

Estimated Upward of Fifty.
Most of the passengers were employees of the Western Electric Company's factory in South Boston, and were returning to their homes from work. Many women and children were included in the number.

BURLESON SILENT ON INCOMPLETE RETURN

Labor Department Enthusiastic Over Results So Far.

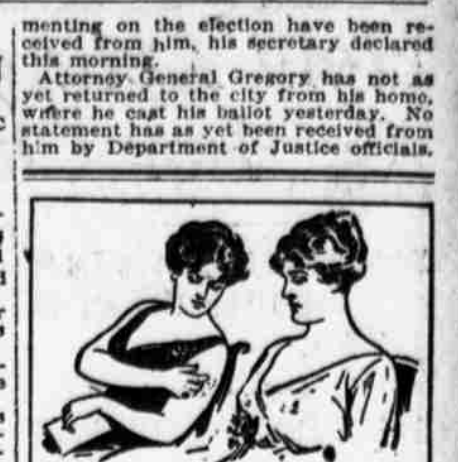

Postmaster General Burleson is watching the returns of the election with interest, but declared that until more definite facts were known he would make no statement.

At the office of Secretary of Labor Wilson a great deal of enthusiasm was shown over late reports.

"It looks like Wilson," they said. Secretary Wilson was much pleased at late returns.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield has not returned to the city yet, but is expected back tonight. No messages commenting on the election have been received from him, his secretary declared this morning.

Attorney General Gregory has not as yet returned to the city from his home, where he cast his ballot yesterday. No statement has as yet been received from him by Department of Justice officials.
